New Jersey-bred Registration Status of Miss Ellary

The board was provided with information regarding Miss Ellary, a foal of 2021 by Social Inclusion out of Lillie's Answer, by Kitten's Joy. Miss Ellary was originally registered by her breeder, Cavanaugh Breen Farms LLC, as a Pennsylvania-bred and raced in a restricted Pennsylvania-bred race at Parx on August 21, 2023.

The Pennsylvania Horse Breeders Association received information that Miss Ellary was born in New Jersey, and after an investigation, the horse was stripped of her Pennsylvania-bred status.

Upon a motion made by Janet Laszlo and seconded by Lawrence Fleming, the board ruled that Miss Ellary was ineligible to be registered as a New Jersey-bred under New Jersey Administrative Code 13:70-6:53 (f) (1), which states, "A breeder who registers or attempts to register a foal based upon false or fraudulent information may be subject to any or all of the following sanctions by the Thoroughbred Breeders' Association:

- (1) The horse may no longer be considered a New Jersey-bred foal.

Joe Coles made a motion, which was seconded by Janet Laslo, to adjourn the meeting at 1:30 p.m. by a vote of 3-0.
